

COLLECT: Almighty and everlasting God, you hate nothing that you have made, and you forgive the sins of all who are penitent: create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we, lamenting our sins and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain from you, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER BEFORE READING: We thank you, Heavenly Father, for inspiring all Scripture by the Holy Spirit. By your Spirit help us so to hear your holy word that we might be equipped for every good work, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FEEDING ON GOD'S PROMISES

“Everything is permissible,” but not everything is beneficial. “Everything is permissible,” but not everything builds up. No one is to seek his own good, but the good of the other person.”

Romans 10:1-17 – Who can be saved?

Taking a brief look at the world headlines, there is much economic uncertainty creating chaos across many nations. People are unsure of what the future may hold, and people don't know where to turn, to find safety and stability. But the reality is that over the majority of human history, people have never been sure of what their future holds. However, the Good News found in the Bible brings a message that guarantees a future beyond the economic instability of our world. In our passage this morning, Romans 10:9 says, “If you declare with your mouth, “Jesus is Lord,” and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.” God has provided a way for us to be set free from the uncertainty and struggles of our world, and provides us with the certain hope of a future that is only found in trusting Jesus.

SMBC MISSION WEEK:

Well, what a week it has been! We have been richly blessed by having the SMBC students with us this week, involved in just about every aspect of our ministries at NBA. I would like to thank Dr Kit Barker, and Rachel Ciano, for leading the team, and for each of the students for being willing to take time out of their busy lives to share in the task of taking the gospel to our parish. I would especially like to thank Sylvia Wong, who has been serving with us this week, and is getting married today at her church in Sydney! Congratulations! And thank you to each of our parish team who have helped in seen and unseen ways. For Jean Maher, Marilyn Sedivy, Ella Reeve, each host of the billets, the leaders of each small group, and Leone, David and Pam. It's been a wonderful time of mutual encouragement, and please pray that God would continue to grow our church family as his disciples-making disciples.
