18 JANUARY 2026 AD

We warmly welcome you to Northern Beaches Anglicans.

If you are new, visiting, or one of our regulars, we are glad you have joined us today.

Psalm 37 – Patiently Waiting on the LORD

One of life's greatest sadnesses is seeing the vulnerable taken advantage of. Whether it is through abuse of power or corruption, exploiting the disadvantaged for personal gain is a great evil - and is more common in our society than we might like to admit. As Christians, we see the harm the wicked inflict on the vulnerable, and sometimes we wonder why God allows such things to happen. We might even ask, 'If God has the power to stop evil, why doesn't he?' One response to this question is to consider what life would be like if God stop every evil act. You see, in the end God grants each person the freedom to chose how they will act – whether for the good of others or for selfish ends. And as Psalm 37 reminds us, God will ultimately call everyone to account, and there will be no future for the wicked. Therefore, as we witness evil in our world, we are called to wait patiently and trust in God's justice.

Money they raise goes directly to purchasing the student booklets and teacher manuals for these classes, as well as funding a High School Scripture teacher part-time. Please pray for the commencement of Scripture in our local schools, especially the High School, and consider financially contributing to this important local gospel partnership.
