New Life With One Another – Colossians 3:18-4:18

So today we turn to the final chapter and a half of Colossians – a letter that reminds its readers of the supremacy of Christ (1:18) and calls them to live a life worthy of him (1:10). Throughout this letter we have been warned about those who would distort the truth about Jesus by adding human traditions, worldly wisdom and ineffectual rules to the gospel (2:8). Instead, the Christian is called to set their hearts and minds on heavenly things, and putting off worldly ways and putting on the character of God, seeking in all things to honour the name of Jesus (3:17). This brings us to the final instructive section of our letter – an exhortation for individuals and households to live ordered and peaceful lives with the aim of winning the outsider to Christ. For Christ is supreme over all, and our desire should be to see all people make him supreme in their lives.

GOSPEL PARTNERSHIP: CMS

The latest newsletter from our CMS link missionaries M and L is attached to the CMS noticeboard. It is filled with encouragements and prayer points, and I commend it to you. M is currently in Argentina as L undergoes his home assignment. And they will both travel to Australia in December and plan to attend the Mt Tamborine Summer School in January. They are so thankful to God that L's brother has recently become a Christian, and they invite us to continue to pray for their language learning, and for their marriage to be built on a strong foundation.

October Holiday Kids Club: Please continue to pray for the ongoing effect of our Holiday Kids' Club giving thanks to God for both the junior and senior leaders, as well as praying for the kids to remember from Jonah that 'God is a God of grace, a God of kindness, slow to anger, and abounding in love.'

SERMON SERIES:

Today signals the end of our current sermon series in Colossians. Next week we will begin a new series in another of the Apostle Paul's letters, 2 Thessalonians. At the back of the church the latest Household Devotions is ready and available for your use as we prepare for this next 3-week series. There is also a colouring sheet of the memory verse available for anyone who would like it.

BISHOP MURRAY'S VISIT:

The Bishop of the Grafton Diocese, the Right Reverend Dr Murray Harvey, is planning to visit NBA on Sunday 9th November for his annual Pastoral Visit. He will be involved in both our 8am and 10am Services, and we will be holding a combined morning tea following the 8am service, which the entire parish family is welcome to attend.
