DAYS OFF Simon—Thursday Pam—Friday

Happy Easter Morning

We warmly welcome you to Northern Beaches Anglicans.

As we celebrate Easter together we pray that you will have a wonderful and safe Easter weekend remembering the great hope we find in Jesus' death, for our sin, and in Jesus' rising to new life, proving that there is life beyond the grave. This morning we will be looking at John's account of the resurrection, where we see Mary, the first apostle, declare to the first Christians, "I have seen the Lord." Jesus went on to meet with 500 other people after he spoke with Mary, and it was these first Christians who transformed the world with this message of hope. May we be filled with joy at the resurrection so that we would be willing to tell others, like Mary, that we have seen the risen Lord.

CMS – Last month our link CMS missionary updated us on the medical work she is involved in where she is based, in the Middle-East. She invited us to pray for a number of people who are going through medical challenges, as well as others with whom she has been able to share the gospel. She also has invited us to pray throughout this month for all Muslim people as they observe Ramadan. So, please continue to support this important work by praying for our link missionary, by keeping updated with her work, and by financially contributing to the Church Missionary Society, whose vision is to see "A World that Knows Jesus".

NEW SERMON SERIES: After the Easter weekend, at the beginning of April, we will be commencing a new sermon series at our 8am and 10am Services. We will be preaching through the book of John, also known as the 4th Gospel. The disciple John, who wrote the book, is described as 'the disciple whom Jesus loved'. His unique biography of Jesus brings us important moments in the life of Jesus helping us to understand more of his character and connection with God the Father. In the coming weeks why not take some time to read ahead and become familiar with John's gospel in preparation for this new sermon series?

"I've seen the Lord!"

This Weeks Readings:

Isaiah 25:6-9 (pg 702)

Acts 10:34-43 (pg 1101)

John 20:1-18 (pg 1087)

This Sunday's Sermon Reading:

John 20:1-18 (pg 1087)

WELCOME: We warmly welcome all our guests and visitors on this special day. Whether you are a local popping in to celebrate

Easter, or whether you are a holiday-maker enjoying the Easter long weekend, we are very glad you have joined us this morning. If you have the time please stay around and enjoy morning tea with us, and make yourself known to one of the ministry team so we can get to know you a little more. Our greatest joy is to encourage fellow believers to persevere in the Christian faith under whatever challenges we may be facing. Our Christian fellowship is centred on the good news of God's King, Jesus Christ, and his free gift given to us, as explained in the Bible. Without this gift of God's mercy we are all left without hope. But, Christ is risen indeed, and new life is found only in him.
